

Before class: Reading and preparing questions to

#CoCreatingGFI

- What teacher suggested
- What students agreed on
- ...

In class:

Discussing

- Individually or in teams
- Win points or not
- Track points or not
- ...

ReADi
 Motivate engagement with texts and discussions with peers

In class:

Asking each other

- Individually or in pairs
- Questions submitted before class or not
- Different types of questions
- Pick who answers
- ...

ReADi rounds to help students read and engage in discussions

Sometimes it is difficult to motivate students to read in preparation of a class. The ReADi method uses question preparation before in-class discussion to facilitate both reading and discussions. But there are many ways this method can be adapted, also in co-creation with the students. Read more here:

Mirjam S. Glessmer, Catherine Bovill, and Kjersti Daae.

2024. Adapting a teaching method to fit purpose and context.

Oceanography

<https://doi.org/10.5670/oceanog.2024.603>.

Scan this for more information! →

